Heidi, I am sad to see that you are still keeping the girls from communicating with me directly and unsupervised on video calls and that it has been going on for more than a month now.

I had specifically asked you repeatedly in my previous emails to be able to have video calls with the girls directly and without your supervision at decent French hours since you know very well I live in Paris. And instead you've tried to call me on whatsapp audio, no video, at 3am on Monday as you can see on the attached screenshot from my phone. This is clearly unacceptable that you're pretending to the girls that you're trying to make communication with me while you know exactly that it's the middle of the night and that I'm going to be sleeping and that these calls will never go through.

So you're telling the girls, "Let's call your father", obviously you're not telling them that it's the middle of the night in France, and then you tell them, "oh look your father doesn't want to talk to you..."

And this is not random, you had done the same thing a week before on April 28th at 4am French time and you did it again last night too... Heidi, everybody can see through this now, you're clearly conducting parental alienation and you want to permanently sever the link between me and the girls. This is shocking.

Not to mention that you've now made the girls miss 3 weeks of their French school in Paris and at this point you are clearly trying to sabotage their entire school year which can have repercussions on their entire education now.

And it's also been more than a month that you escaped Europe criminally and voluntarily left behind the girls' luggage with their palatal expanders while the girls were on an orthodontist treatment that you had approved yourself to happen here in France over the next two years.

You left their palatal expanders on purpose which also has medical consequences on our children since every week we are supposed to adjust this palatal expander and you've interrupted that treatment for more than a month now!

I am extremely concerned about the parent you've become to our children right now... Please come back to your senses Heidi, stop destroying their French school year and their relationship to their Father and their health!

Please bring them back to Paris of your own right now and we can try to put this entire nightmare behind us as I am still willing to let you have equal parenting time in France and to let the girls spend their entire French school vacations in Oregon with you and your family as part of the French meditations we had started in Paris before you conducted this shocking kidnapping in the middle of the school year.

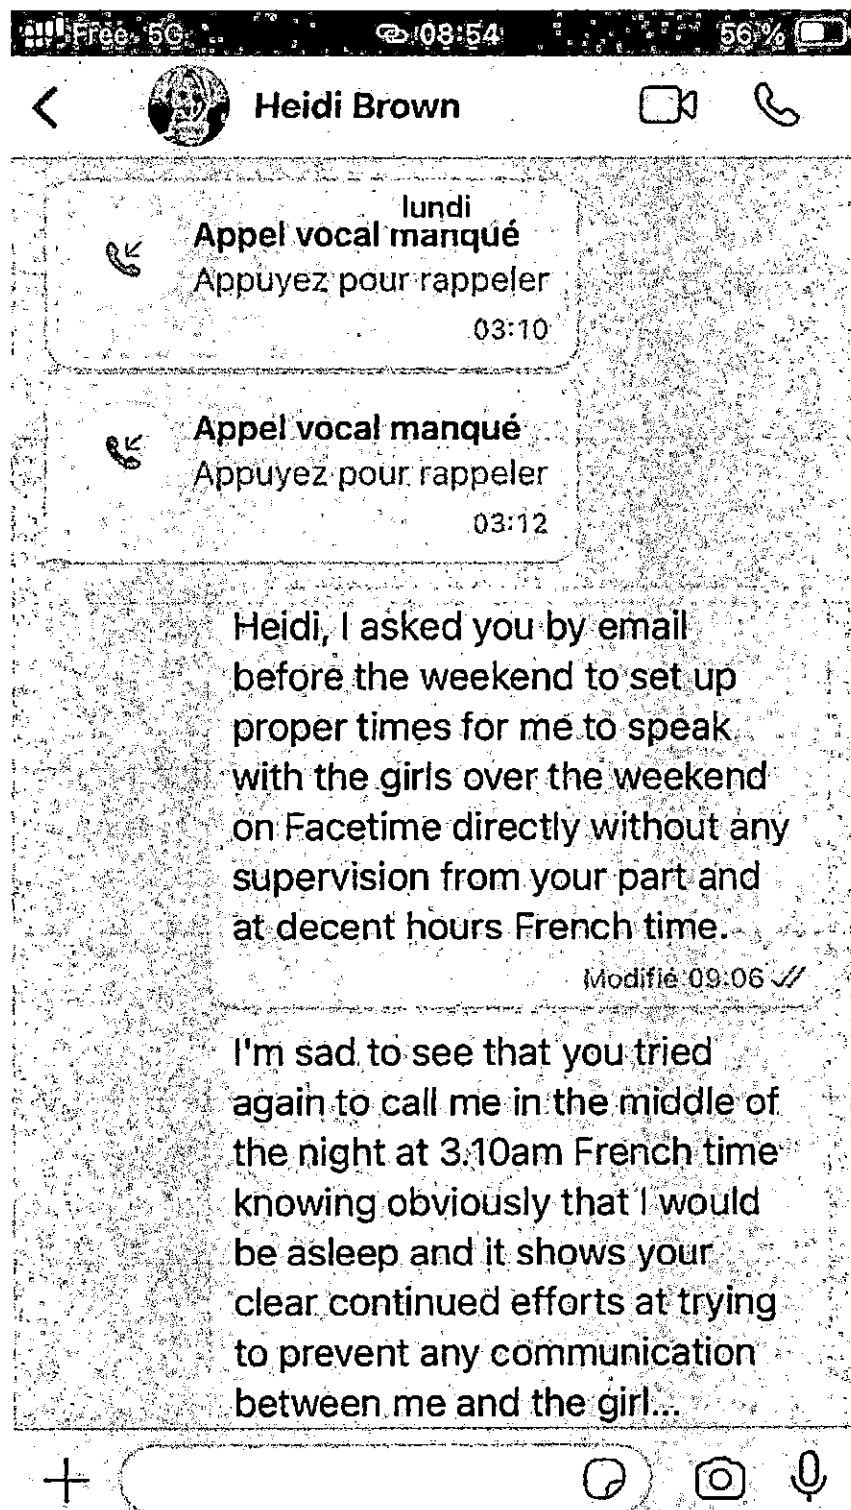

And please re-establish immediately proper communication between me and the girls starting today Saturday by organizing a video call between 6pm and 7pm Paris time which is 9am to 10am US West coast time. The girls need to be able to speak to me directly each at a time on this video call and unsupervised by you or anyone else.

And please let me know of five other possible video call times with the girls at decent French hours and able to last 30 minutes (so no pressure on the girls to have to go somewhere or watch a movie or something of that nature) for the coming week so that I can get organized to have these unsupervised video calls in the best conditions and re-establish the link with them that you've been trying to sever completely for more than a month now.

Thank you,

Arnaud
